Named to the post June 18th, 2001, Higgins quickly put his mark on the Eskimos and helped guide the team to a first place finish in the tough CFL West Division. Despite a season long injury bug that plagued the Eskimos, Higgins disciplined approach and attention to fundamentals helped keep the team on track. Tom first joined the Eskimos in 1993 as the clubs' Assistant General Manager.

Tom got his start in CFL coaching and administration during his nine seasons (1985 - '93) with the Calgary Stampeders where he served as special teams coordinator, offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at various times during his time with the Stamps.

Tom has taken a leadership role in increasing women's football knowledge through the Football 101 program.

As a player, Tom was an All-Conference and All-American in both football and wrestling at North Carolina State and was captain of both teams. Coached by Lou Holtz, Tom participated in four consecutive bowl games.

His pro career started as a linebacker with Calgary in 1976. He then jumped to the NFL's Buffalo Bills under head coach Chuck Knox before returning to Canada in 1980 with the Saskatchewan Roughriders. Tom's father played in the NFL in the 1950's with Chicago and Philadelphia, followed by 45 years coaching high school football.

Calgary Dinosaurs from 1982 - '84, helping the U of C to two conference championships and the Canadian title in 1983.

Acquired: Signed as a free agent April 28, 2003.

Pro: A 12 year CFL veteran, Mike is the CFL's second all-time leading rusher and a two time winner of the CFL Outstanding Player Award. He has rushed for over 1,600 yards in 6 of the past 9 seasons and has eclipsed the 2000+ combined yards mark 5 of the past 9 years. Drafted 6th round (139th overall) by Atlanta in the 1990 NFL Draft, Mike appeared in 3 games as a rookie. He was the final cut from the Falcons 1991 training camp. He signed as a free agent with Edmonton in 1992, and played in 3 games for the Eskimos, but was released in July 1992. He signed with Sacramento in 1993 and spent one season with the Gold Miners. Traded to Baltimore in 1994, Mike spent two seasons with the Stallions. After a tryout with the Denver Broncos in 1996, Mike signed as a free agent with Montreal on August 26, 1996 and established himself as one of football's premier power 'backs during seven seasons with the Alouettes.

1998 stands out as the greatest achievement in a storied career. Mike became the first player in CFL history to rush for more than 2,000 yards (2065) in a single season and in the process broke his own record (1,972) that he set in 1994. He also established a new league mark for most carries in a season with 347 and tied the CFL record for yards from scrimmage (2,414). He set new CFL records for most 100+ yards rushing games in a season (14) and most consecutive 100+ rushing games (13).

Mike is in pursuit of the CFL's all-time leading rusher George Reed. In 13 seasons the former Saskatchewan great posted 3,243 carries for 16,116 yards, 134 TDs and 66 games of 100+ yds rushing. In 11 CFL seasons, Mike has logged 2,391 carries for 13,680 yards, 104 TDs and 65 games of 100+ yds rushing.

2002: Mike registered 39 carries for 227 yards, but suffered a season ending knee injury Week #6 vs. Edmonton.

Attendance 33,584

Singer Mobley picked off Marcus Crandell's first pass of 2002 and returned it 34 yards to set the Esks rolling. Jason Maas hit Ronald Williams with a 24 yd TD pass to open the scoring and quickly quieted the McMahon crowd of 33,584. The Esks marched 70 yds on 10 plays, capping it off with a 11 yd Sean Fleming field goal to make it 10-0. Edmonton went ahead 17-0 on a Jason Maas 102 yd pitch and catch to Chris "Razzle Dazzle" Brazzell. The Esks benefited from a bad Calgary snap and took possession inside the Calgary 40. Six plays and 37 yards later, Maas hit Vaughn for a 7 yd TD to put Edmonton up 24-0. Mobley picked off his second Crandell pass in the end zone and ran it back 27 yds. At the half, the Esks had piled up 397 yds total offence (155 rushing; 242 passing). Elfrid Payton recorded his first sack as an Eskimo, hauling down Crandall. Payton finished the night with three sacks. Doug Petersen was ejected from the game mid-way through the third quarter after a fight. It was the second consecutive week that Petersen had been tossed out. Calgary finally got on the board with a Tounkara TD that capped off a 14 play - 98 yard drive. Sean Fleming was good on a 21 yd field goal to put Edmonton up 27-7. The Stamps would do the rest of the scoring in the fourth, but were unable to regain possession off a late on-side kick.

REGULAR SEASON GAME #2EDMONTON
OTTAWA*40*24*Thursday, July 4, 2002
Attendance 30,152

Edmonton started slow against the expansion 'Gades, who fielded a roster with 11 ex-Eskimos. Sean Fleming's 17 yd field goal capped a nine play - 63 yard drive from the opening kick-off. On the next series, Gerald Vaughn blocked Sean Fleming's punt and Shawn Gallant recovered in the end zone for an Ottawa TD and a 7-3 lead. Ottawa's defense - especially the front - had Edmonton on its heels for much of the first half. At :14 seconds of the second, Demetris Scouris's 15 yd FG put Ottawa up 10-3. Back to back strikes from Jason Maas to Chris Brazzell (30 yds) and Terry Vaughn (37 yds) put Edmonton in range for a 28 yd Sean Fleming FG to narrow the margin to 10-6, but Ottawa quarterback Dan Crowley used the long ball to burn the Eskimo secondary. Midway through the second quarter Denis Montana's 91 yd TD capped a five play 102 yd drive. Former Esk Eddie Brown found a hole in the seam for a 78 yd TD to put Ottawa up 24-6. Maas was sacked five times in the first half. In the dying moments of the first half, Maas hooked up with Scott Robinson for a 59 yard reception, and came back to Robinson for a 9 yd TD. At the half Ottawa led 24-13.

Edmonton came out firing to start the second half with a Maas to Tucker 82 yd pass, followed up by a 1 yd Ronald Williams TD plunge to narrow the gap to 24-19. The snap on the point after was bobbled and veteran Jed Roberts was injured in the ensuing pile-up. Roberts suffered a broken ankle on the play. Edmonton pulled a point closer on a Sean Fleming 59 yd single (24-20). Rahim Abdullah - making his Eskimo debut - blocked a Demetris Scouris 39 yd FG attempt... Terry Ray scooped up the loose ball and returned it 35 yds. Maas scrambled to his right and threw up a "Hail Mary" intended for Rick Walters but tipped to Scott Robinson for a 24 yard gain. Maas pitched off to John Avery who scooted in for an 11 yard TD and Edmonton regained the lead 27-24. Sean Fleming nailed a 49 yd FG at 13:38 of the third to put Edmonton ahead 30-24. Terry Vaughn's 19 yd catch podded the lead to 37-24 and Sean Fleming put the final 3 points on the board and nailed down the Esks second straight win 40-24.

A ragged start for both teams in front of 33,108 fans at Commonwealth. Elfrid Payton recorded back to back sacks of Argos quarterback Michael Bishop in the first quarter. Kellogg opened the scoring late in the first when he picked off Bishop who threw under pressure from A.J. Gass. Kellogg returned the ball 34 yards for the major. The Esks jumped on another Bishop mistake when Shannon Garrett returned an INT 65 yds to put Edmonton up by 14 points. Bishop suffered a leg injury trying to chase down Garrett and was replaced by rookie Jack Hawley who was making his first appearance. The Argos got on the board with a 21 yd Prefontaine FG at 5:05 of the second quarter. Sheldon Benoit recovered a Shawn Daniels fumble. On the ensuing drive, Maas hit Jason Tucker who fought through three tacklers for a 36 yd gain. John Avery danced over for a 9 yd TD to put Edmonton up 21-3. Edmonton came out firing against the 'Riders, but it would be short-lived. Elfrid Payton nailed Nealon Greene the first time he touched the ball, forcing a fumble. Malcolm Frank recovered and four plays later Ronald Williams ran it in from the 2 yd line for his third rushing TD of the season. (Edm 7-0). The 'Riders answered back on the next series with a Chris Szarka TD and Dylan Ching turned a bobbled snap into a two point conversion (Ssk 8 - Edm 7). Saskatchewan added to the lead in the second with a 44 yd McCallum FG. (Ssk 11 - Edm 7).

The Eskimos were hit with a flurry of penalties mid-way through the second quarter. McCallum and Fleming traded field goals and Saskatchewan led 14-10 at the half. Early in the third, Fleming picked up a single off a 51 yd FG attempt to narrow the gap to 14-11, but that would be the last scoring the Eskimos would do on the night. Nealon Greene hit Bendross for an 11 yd TD to put the 'Riders up 21-11. Riders put together an 8 play drive that ended with Greene running it over from 18 yds out for a TD.

Saskatchewan led 28-11 after three quarters. McCallum's 75 yd KO to start the fourth put the Eskimos in bad field position and Fleming gave up a safety to increase the Riders lead to 30-11. A pair of Rider TDs (Holmes and Shaw) put Saskatchewan up 44-11. Edmonton gave up a single off an 88 yd McCallum kick-off. With Jason Maas on the sidelines nursing a sore left shoulder, rookie quarterback Ricky Ray finished up for the Eskimos.

If getting the ball to Terry Vaughn was a key part of the Esks plan, they executed perfectly. At 9:10 of the first quarter Vaughn caught a 14 yard TD pass from Ricky Ray, making his first CFL start. The play capped off a 5 play, 50 yd drive. On the ensuing kick-off, BC's Willie Hurst took it all the way to the house on a 99 yd TD return to tie the score 7-7.

John Avery answered back on the very next play with a 75 yd KO return which set up a Sean Fleming FG (19 yds) to make it 10-7 Edmonton. The Lions took a 14-10 lead on a Damon Allen to Alfred Jackson TD pass. Ed Hervey, playing his first game of the season used his speed to get behind the Lions defence for a 35 yd reception. One play later, Ray hit Rick Walters for a 5 yd TD to restore the Edmonton lead 17-14. The second half opened with a storm, but that was just a prelude for the storm Edmonton unleashed on BC.

The Esks ran up 17 unanswered points in the third quarter starting with a Sean Fleming 18 yd FG at 4:43 (20-14). Ricky Ray engineered a four play drive that ended with a 57 yard bomb to Ed Hervey at 8:37 to make it (Edmonton 27-14). Avery scooted over from 19 yards but it was called back. On the next play, Ray hit Hervey for a 29 yd TD at 13:32 (Edmonton 34-14). Fleming hit a 40 yd FG at 2:23 of the fourth to make it Edmonton 37-14. The Lions scored a pair of TDs (Millington 1 yd run) and (Thelwell 16 yd rec) to narrow the gap.

Ricky Ray made his second straight start in place of the injured Jason Maas. The Alouettes struck first on a 26 yd Terry Baker FG that finished off a 7 play, 62 yd drive. After Edmonton went two and out on the next series, Keith Stokes found the seam and returned a Fleming punt 80 yards for a major (Mil 10-0).

Edmonton answered back on the next series when the Als took two penalties to put the ball on the 42 yd line. Ricky Ray launched a 42 yd TD strike to Jason Tucker who had two Als draped all over him (Mil 10 - Edm 7). Montreal picked up a single point on a 58 yd Terry Baker single. (Mil 11-7).

Penalties dictated the flow or lack thereof in the second quarter. Edmonton benefited from a pair of Als penalties; Rick Walters caught an 11 yd TD pass from Ricky Ray to put the Eks up 13-11 and Fleming convert-good to make it Edm 14-11. Terry Baker hit from 16 yds out to make it 14-14 at the half. The Als faked a FG attempt; Cahoon picked up 21 yds on the run and Montreal set up a one yd Bruno Heppell TD plunge. (Mtl 21-14) Terry Baker hit again, this time from the 36 to widen the gap to (Mtl 24-14). Keith Stokes stunned the crowd and the Eskimos with an 89 yard punt return for a TD (Mtl 31-14). Baker hit two more FGs to close out the scoring.

REGULAR SEASON GAME #10EDMONTON*28*CALGARY*20*Monday, September 2, 2002*Attendance 35,967

The Stamps drew first blood in the Annual Labour Day Classic on a 59 yard punt single from O'Mahoney that Winston October bobbled in the end zone. Ricky Ray, making his third straight start, fumbled while being sacked. Tim Bakker recovered, but the Eskis were forced to punt from deep in their zone. Marcus Crandell hit Don Blair and Travis Moore for big gains before going back to Moore for an 8 yd TD pass. (First Quarter Cgy 8 - Edm 0)

Edmonton opened the second quarter with the ball on the Calgary one yd line. Wendell Davis scored his second TD of the year on a one yard run that capped off a 9 play 58 yard drive. Edmonton took its first lead of the day at 10:14 of the second quarter on a 19 yd Sean Fleming FG that finished off an 8 play series that covered 50 yds. (Edm 10 - Cgy 8) Edmonton picked up a point on a Fleming 51 yd punt single. Calgary missed a chance to pull even with just 0:25 remaining in the second when McLaughlin missed a 27 yd FG (40 yd single)

With the Eskis driving on their opening series of the third quarter, John Avery fumbled inside the Calgary 20 yd line; recovered by the Stamps. Veteran corner Malcolm

Frank picked off Crandell's pass to the sideline and dashed in for a 24 yd INT TD at 5:41. (Edm 18 - Cgy 9). On the next series, Calgary marched down field was aided by Fabian Burke's unnecessary roughness penalty. Crandell hooked up again with Travis Moore for a 20 yd TD to finish off a 5 play 72 yard drive. (Edm 18 - Cgy 16) Sean Fleming pinned Calgary on its 2 yd line with a great 42 yard punt. Calgary narrowed the gap by one on an O'Mahoney 66 yard punt single. (Edm 18 - Cgy 17).

The Stamps took the lead at 7:19 of the fourth on McLaughlin's 45 yard FG. (Cgy 20 - Edm 18). Six plays and 37 yards later, Sean Fleming nailed a 45 yard FG at 10:26 to put the Eskimos back in front (Edm 21 - Cgy 20). The Stamps punted the ball away on the next series to set up a bizarre chain of events. Fleming faked a punt and threw the ball out of bounds, but Calgary was called for too many men. Edmonton got the ball back and two plays later, Ray was picked off by Kelly Malveaux. On the very next play, Singor Mobley picked off Marcus Crandell and returned it for a 54 yard TD.

2002 IN REVIEW

On Damon Allen "Bobble Head Night" it was the Eskimos who were doing all of the bobbling. On the first play off the opening kick-off, Ricky Ray was stripped of the ball while scrambling out of the pocket. BC recovered and Damon Allen went to work with great field position, hitting Ryan Thelwell with a 37 yard pass to set up Whitaker's 1 yd TD run. (BC 7 - Edm 0). On the next series, Ray fumbled the snap and the Lions recovered. Kellett put the Lions up by 10 points with a 21 yd FG.

Edmonton got on the board early in the second quarter when Ed Hervey "out jumped" Anthony Prior for the ball for a 32 yd TD. (BC 10 - Edm 7). Edmonton picked up a single when Sean Fleming sailed a 32 yard FG wide. (BC 10 - Edm 8). Matt Kellett's 13 yd FG gave the Lions a cushion of 13-8. John Avery showed off his dazzling speed and agility on his way to a 61 yd TD run and the Eskimos first lead of the game. (Edm 15 - BC 13). Rookie LB Kelvin Powell registered his first INT as a pro when he picked off Damon Allen. Edmonton turned the ball over four times in the first half.

At 5:55 of the third quarter, Allen hit rookie Jason Clermont who bounced off both Coleman and Mobley to score a 36 yd TD to restore the Lions lead. Kellett EP good (BC 20 - Edm 15). At 2:12 of the fourth, Fleming hit a 20 yd FG to narrow the BC lead (BC 20 - Edm 18). Kellett restored the Lions five point spread when he hit a 37 yd FG at 13:48 of the fourth. The Eskimos turned the ball over six times on the night, but a defining moment came late in the fourth when Winston October opted not to field a punt, which left Edmonton in poor field position with little time left.

Edmonton dipped into the trick bag on its first possession, when Mike Bradley took a shovel pass from Terry Ray off a fake punt and rumbled 31 yards to set up Fleming's 20 yd FG at 4:58. (Edm 3 - Wpg 0). At 8:24, John Avery dances over from 8 yards out. Edm 10 - Wpg 0. Winnipeg loses RB Charles Roberts at 9:00 with a broken collarbone from an Elfrid Payton hit. Khari Jones was hit with back to back sacks from Reese and Terry Ray. Fleming hit another FG at 9:19 and the Eskimos looked to have it all but nailed down. (Edm 32 - Wpg 6).

The Bombers showed some real grit with a drive that ended on Mike Sellers 2 yd run at 14:15. (Edm 32 - Wpg 13).

The roof caved in on the Esks when a bad snap sailed over Fleming's head and he tried to kick the ball through the end-zone. Bombers recover for a TD. (Edm 32 - Wpg 20). Winnipeg kept coming. Westwood's 39 yard FG was good. (Edm 32 - Wpg 23). Edmonton's offence stalled just as the Bombers was coming to life. GREY CUP

MONTREAL
EDMONTON

Sunday, November 24, 2002
Attendance 62,531

EDMONTON, Alberta – The Montreal Alouettes used a handful of big plays on offense, defense and special teams to win their first Grey Cup in 25 years, 25-16 over the Edmonton Eskimos.

Anthony Calvillo threw two long touchdown passes, Timothy Strickland broke up a potential tying two-point conversion toss in the final minute and Jermaine Copeland returned the ensuing onside kickoff 47 yards for his second score of the game for the Alouettes.

Moments later, Montreal celebrated the fifth CFL championship in franchise history and the first since 1977. In the interim, the team was renamed the Concordes and folded twice before it was reborn in 1996.

The Alouettes never trailed, taking an 8-0 lead in the second quarter on the longest pass play in Grey Cup history, a 99-yard connection from Calvillo to Pat Woodcock.

Calvillo also hooked up with Copeland on a 47-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter that stretched Montreal's advantage to 18-10.

Edmonton got within 18-16 with 19 seconds remaining on a 17-yard TD pass from Ricky Ray to Edward Hervey. But Strickland reached in front of Terry Vaughn and broke up the conversion, which could have forced the first overtime in the Grey Cup since 1961.

The Eskimos lined up for an onside kick, but the ball popped in the air and was grabbed by Copeland, who raced untouched down the right sideline to set off the celebration.

Calvillo won Most Valuable Player honors after completing 11-of-31 passes for 259 yards and two TDs.

Calvillo's strike to Woodcock broke the Grey Cup record of 90 yards set by Montreal's Sam Etcheverry in 1954 and matched by Hamilton's Bernie Faloney in 1961. It also highlighted a first half dominated by the Alouettes' defense.

Edmonton managed just 88 total yards and trailed at halftime, 11-0, as Terry Baker had a single and a 42-yard field goal in the final game of his 16-year career.

The Eskimos finally got on the board three minutes into the third quarter on a 17-yard pass from Ray to Rick Walters. A 12-yard field goal by Sean Fleming sliced the margin to 11-10 heading to the final period.

One play after ending a streak of 11 incompletions, Calvillo scrambled and found Copeland open over the middle. The Tennessee product got two key blocks from slotback Ben Cahoon, broke a tackle and covered 47 yards to restore Montreal's eight-point cushion.

A PROUD HISTORY

THE EDMONTON ESKIMOS

The Beginning 1892-1948

In 1892, the first shot was fired in the Battle of Alberta as Edmonton forms a rugby club that defeated an established team from Calgary. In 1895, Edmonton won its first Alberta Rugby Football title. In 1907, "Deacon" White became Edmonton's first import player and he later went on to coach the team. In 1908, the Edmonton Esquimaux won their second Alberta Rugby Football Championship. The team was renamed "Eskimos" in 1910. The club dropped the championship to Calgary two straight years after the Western Canada Rugby Football Union was established in 1911. In 1913, the Eskimos reclaimed the title before 300 fans in Red Deer.

After a three year hiatus for WW I, the Western Canada Rugby Football Union was re-established. Two years later in 1921, the Eskimos became the first Western team to play in the Grey Cup. Edmonton lost to the host Toronto Argonauts 23-0. The following year, the Esks were back again in the Grey Cup, only to lose again this time to Queen's University 13-1. In 1923, Regina defeated Edmonton to win the Western title. The next season, Calgary defeated the Esks in the Alberta championship and Edmonton ceased operations. Edmonton returned to the field of play in 1928 and won its sixth Alberta Rugby championship. The Eskimos made history in 1929 when Joe Cook threw the first forward pass, connecting with Pal Power for a touchdown.

In 1930, Clarke Stadium, named after Edmonton mayor Joe Clarke was opened. The city was represented by a team named the "Boosters", who wore blue and white uniforms. The Esks pulled out of the WIFU in 1940 and play was suspended from 1942 to 1947 during WWII. In 1948, The Edmonton Eskimo Rugby Club became a publicly owned company. Twenty thousand shares at one dollar apiece were available. Noted Edmonton businessmen Joe Shocter, Henry Singer, Eric Duggan and Moe Lieberman took leadership roles with the club.

Green and Gold 1949-1969

The Eskimos adopted their now famous Green and Gold uniforms in 1949. The following year Edmonton would make history when they met Winnipeg in the first professional playoff game played at night under lights. Edmonton was defeated 21-11 by Toronto in the 1952 Grey Cup played at Toronto's Varsity Stadium. In 1953, Eskimo halfback Billy Vessells was named the first winner of the Schenley Award as the league's Outstanding Player. Led by Head Coach Frank "Pop" Ivy, the Eskimos "original dynasty" would win the first of three consecutive (1954-1956) Grey Cup titles, starting with a thrilling 26-25 win over Montreal in the 1954 Grey Cup in Toronto that featured Jackie Parker's fumble recovery and 84 yard touchdown that has become one of the most famous plays in Canadian sports history. Edmonton and Montreal would be back in the Grey Cup the following year in Vancouver and the Eskimos prevailed 34-19. Edmonton's Normie Kwong took home the Schenley as the league's top player. In the '56 Grey Cup, Edmonton with Canadian quarterback Don Getty at the helm romped over the Als 50-27. Normie Kwong took home his second consecutive Schenley and "Pop" Ivy was named Coach of the Year. Edmonton's bid for a fourth straight Cup would end in the West Final with a loss to Winnipeg, but there were plenty of individual honours as Jackie Parker won the Schenley, Johnny Bright was the league's leading rusher and Mike Lashuk was the top rookie.

In 1958, Sam Lyle replaced Ivy as the Esks head coach. Jackie Parker won his second straight Schenley and Johnny Bright was again the CFL's top rusher. Lyle would step down following the season. Former Eskimo player Eagle Keys was named head coach in 1959. The Eskimos ushered in the Swingin' 60's with a 16-6 loss to Ottawa in the Grey Cup. Jackie Parker won his third consecutive Schenley Award. The Esks stumbled through the 1962-'63 seasons with a record of 8-23-1. In 1964, Neill Armstrong replaced Eagle Keys as coach and the Esks adopted the nine man board of directors to help manage business operations. In 1966, Norm Kimball was promoted from coordinator of minor football to general manager and the work would start on Edmonton's "Next Dynasty."

The 70's

In 1970, Ray Jauch replaced Neill Armstrong and was named CFL Coach of the Year in his first year at the helm. Two former Eskimo greats were inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame: Johnny Bright (1970) and Jackie Parker (1971). 1973 was highlighted by Edmonton's 8th trip to the Grey Cup. The Esks lost 22-18 to Ottawa, but the team served notice of great things to come. George McGowan tied a CFL record with 15 receptions in one game and was named 1970 Schenley Award winner while teammate Dave Cutler set a new league mark with 32 field goals in a season.

Quarterback Tom Wilkinson who had joined the Eskimos in 1972 as part of a key multi-player deal with BC led the Eskimos to the 1974 Grey Cup only to fall 20-7 to Montreal. Wilkinson would be named the Schenley Award winner that year.

The 1975 edition of the Esks would roll to a 12-4 regular season record and a trip to the first ever Prairie Grey Cup at McMahon Stadium in Calgary.

Edmonton would get all of its field goals from Dave Cutler to defeat Montreal 9-8. After dropping to third in the Western Conference and losing to Saskatchewan in the 1976 West Final, Edmonton named Hugh Campbell as Head Coach in 1977 and the move paid immediate dividends.

Linebacker and future Hall of Famer Danny Kepley won the Schenley as the CFL's top Defensive Player. Playing before a record crowd of 68,318 at Montreal's Olympic Stadium, Edmonton lost the 1977 Grey Cup 41-6 to the hometown Alouettes. On August 23, 1978, the Esks played their last game at Clarke Stadium and moved to the newly constructed Commonwealth Stadium. With a punishing defence led by Dan Kepley and "Dr. Death" Dave Fennell Edmonton would beat Montreal 20-13 in the 1978 Grey Cup and the "Five in a Row" Dynasty was off and running. The Esks and Als met again in the 1979 Grey Cup with Edmonton prevailing 17-9. There was no shortage of individual honours as receiver Brian Kelly was named top rookie, Dave Fennell Outstanding Canadian and Mike Wilson the top lineman. The city clearly loved the Green and Gold as the Esks set a Western Conference attendance record of 340,239.

The 80's

The new decade would start much the way the last one ended. The talent laden Eskimos piled up 505 points en route to a 13-3 regular season record and meeting with Hamilton in the 1980 Grey Cup in Toronto. Tom Scott had 3 TDs and Jim Germany added a pair as Edmonton hammered the Tiger-Cats 48-10. Dan Kepley was named the CFL's Outstanding Defensive Player. Winning had now become a habit, and the next season the Esks set league records with a 14-1-1 record and their fourth straight Grey Cup when they defeated Ottawa 26-23. In 1982, the Esks stumbled out of the gate with a 3-5 record and Hugh Campbell announced it would be his last season. Campbell was named Head Coach of the NFL's Houston Oilers in 1977. Following Campbell's announcement, the Esks reeled off 8 straight wins, a West Division championship and a trip to the 1982 Grey Cup against Toronto. Edmonton soundly beat the Argos 32-16 to win their fifth straight Grey Cup. Dave Fennell won Outstanding Canadian and Outstanding Defensive Player in the Grey Cup, quarterback Warren Moon was Outstanding Player and James "Quick" Parker won the Schenley Award as the CFL's Outstanding Defensive Player.

Damon Allen 1986 - 1994

1983 marked the end of the dynasty and ushered in a period of 're-tooling' for the Green and Gold. Moon left for the Houston Oilers and Pete Kettela had the unenviable task of following in Hugh Campbell's footsteps. Kettela was fired following a Labour Day loss in Calgary and replaced by Jackie Parker who led the Esks to three consecutive third place finishes (1983, '84, '85). In 1986, the Esks rebounded with a record of 13-4-1 and a first place finish, but were trounced 39-15 by Hamilton 1986 Grey Cup in Vancouver. Hugh Campbell returned to Edmonton as the clubs' General Manager, a post he would hold until 1997.

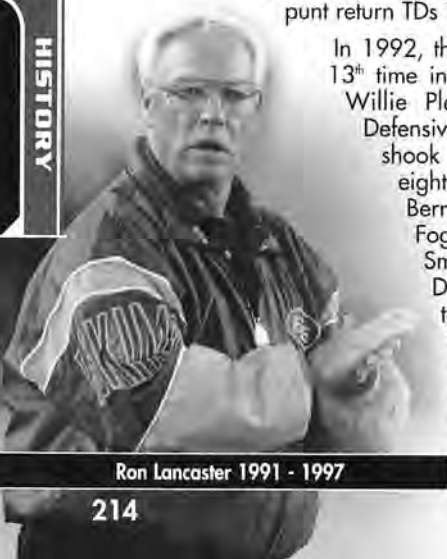

With Joe Faragalli as head coach, 1987 marked record setting seasons for receiver Brian Kelly and kick returner Gizmo Williams, a return to form for the Esks and Edmonton's tenth Grey Cup title. Quarterback Damon Allen was chosen Outstanding Player in the Esks 38-36 Grey Cup win over Toronto.

The Eskimos celebrated their 40th anniversary in 1989 and set a record for most wins in a season (16), most points (644), most TDs (70), yards gained (7,951) and Tracy Ham set a league record for yards rushing by a quarterback in a season (1,051).

The 90's

The Eskimos entered the new decade with a trip to the Grey Cup against Winnipeg, but lost the championship game 50-11. Faragalli left following the season and was replaced by Ron Lancaster who, in his first season, led the Esks to a 12-6 first place finish before losing to Calgary in the West Final. Fullback Blake Marshall tied the CFL record for most TDs in a season (20) and was named the CFL's Most Outstanding Canadian. Gizmo Williams continued to electrify fans and established new records for most punt returns in a season (1,140), most punt returns in a game (232) and most punt return TDs in a season (5).

In 1992, the Esks advanced to the West Final for the 13th time in 21 years but lost to Calgary. Linebacker Willie Pless was named the CFL's Outstanding Defensive player. The following season, Edmonton shook up its roster with a blockbuster eight for eight trade with Toronto. The Esks obtained Ed Berry, Eddie Brown, Bruce Dickenson, Rickey Foggie, J.P. Izquierdo, Len Johnson, Darrell K. Smith and in a separate deal reacquired Damon Allen from Hamilton. Edmonton rolled to eight consecutive victories including a 33-23 win over Winnipeg to win their 11th Grey Cup. Sean Fleming accounted for 21 of Edmonton's points and was named Outstanding Canadian in the Grey Cup.

Willie Pless 1991 - 1998

Edmonton posted back to back second place finishes in 1994 and '95, Willie Pless was named the CFL's Outstanding Defensive Player two straight seasons (1994 '95), and in 1995 set a new league record by qualifying for the playoffs for a 24th straight season. In 1996, the Eskimos finished second in the West and advanced to their 19th Grey Cup appearance, losing 43-37 to Toronto. Ron Lancaster passed Hugh Campbell for most wins as an Eskimo head coach with 71 and Lancaster became just the third coach in team history to be named CFL Coach of the Year. With Edmonton hosting Grey Cup '97, the Eskimos finished first in the West with a 12-6 record, only to be upset in the West Final at Commonwealth Stadium by Saskatchewan. Lancaster left the Eskimos following the 1997 season as the winningest coach in team history (83). 1998 marked the one and only season for ex-Sacramento and San Antonio head coach Kay Stephenson who replaced Lancaster. Stephenson resigned following the '98 season and was replaced by the winningest coach in CFL history - Don Matthews. The Esks were 6-12 and third in the West in Matthews first season, but qualified for the playoffs for the 28th straight year.

2000 - present

The start of the new millennium was the end of the great Gizmo Williams' playing career. After 200 games in Green and Gold, Williams left football as the leading kick returner of all-time and the Eskimos most popular player.

In 2001, Don Matthews was replaced as head coach by General Manager Tom Higgins prior to the Esks first pre-season.

Jason Maas became the first Eskimo quarterback since 1990 to be named a CFL West All-Star in leading Edmonton to a first place finish and a trip to the West Final. Sean Fleming set a team record with 22 consecutive field goals and was named a West All-Star as both punter and kicker.

Edmonton was named host city for the 90th Grey Cup in 2002 and the Eskimos didn't disappoint fans who were hoping they would become the first Western team since BC in 1994 to both play in and host a Grey Cup game. Led by rookie quarterback Ricky Ray, CFL leading rusher John Avery, slotback Terry Vaughn, who set a league record with his 8th consecutive 1000+ yards receiving season, and CFL sack leader Elfrid Payton, Edmonton finished 13-5, good for first in the West and second overall. Edmonton defeated Winnipeg 33-30 in the West Final and advanced to the Grey Cup against Montreal, which the Als won 25-16.

Six Eskimos were named to the CFL West All-Star team: John Avery, Jason Tucker, Terry Vaughn, Bruce Beaton, Elfrid Payton and Sean Fleming. Avery, Fleming, Payton, Vaughn and Tucker were selected to the 2002 CFL All-Star team. Payton capped his career year by winning the CFL Outstanding Defensive Player award, while teammate Bruce Beaton was runner-up as Outstanding Lineman.

COMMONWEALTH STADIUM

Commonwealth Stadium became the home of the Edmonton Eskimos on August 30, 1978. In the 2003 season, Commonwealth Stadium will celebrate its 25th anniversary. Recognized as one of the premier playing surfaces in North America, Commonwealth Stadium remains the only major sporting facility in Canada with natural grass. Situated just 1.5 miles from downtown Edmonton, spectators are awestruck by the wide-open feel of the stadium, where you can expect the stunning backdrops of clear blue skies or the fiery northern lights.

Capacity & Crowds

Capacity:	60,081
Largest Regular Season Crowd:	61,481 (largest crowd for a CFL regular season game) September 6, 2002 Edmonton 45 Calgary 11

Facilities

- Built for $20.9 million in 1978 to host the Commonwealth Games
- Underwent $22.17 million in major renovations in 2001 for the World Championships in Athletics and now features new concession and washroom facilities, a Mondo track and upgrades to the mechanical and cosmetic aspects of the stadium.
- The $6.2 million Sony JumboTron video scoreboard is currently the largest and most advanced system of its kind in the world – measuring 40' x 24' with a 16:9 aspect wide-screen picture format.

Natural, grass field

- Commonwealth Stadium is the only all natural grass field in the CFL.
- 112,416 square feet/12,493 square yards/10,443 square metres/2.58 acres of grass is used
- The sod consists of a blue grass mixture and will take a crew of eight approximately 20 hours to complete, from start to finish.
- The field is meticulously fertilized and watered to keep it up to standards that exceed national and international requirements.
- It costs approximately $25,000 to re-sod the field.
- 1800 cubic metres of a growing medium, a soil and sand mixture, is used under the grass that is leveled, floated and compacted to the final grade.
- The sod is from Big Lake Farm in Westaskiwin.

CLARKE STADIUM

The creation of Clarke Stadium, named after former Edmonton mayor Joe Clarke, in July of 1938 helped Edmonton become a big league city and solidify the Eskimo franchise. In August of 1938 the stadium opened with much fanfare, before a crowd of 2,500. Clarke Stadium was the home of the Edmonton Eskimos until August 23, 1978.

An entirely new Clarke Stadium was constructed in 2001 for the 8th IAAF 2001 World Championships in Athletics, adjacent to Commonwealth Stadium. The new facility was developed for $4.35 million, including new grandstands, dressing rooms, washroom facilities, concession stands and field. With a 2500 seat capacity, grass field and Mondo track, Clarke Stadium is a legacy for all amateur sports and is operated by the City of Edmonton. The Edmonton Eskimos often still use the facility for practice and special events.

INSIGHT SPORTS LTD.

Insight Sports Ltd has created all of the programming you see on the Jumbotron at Eskimo home games. Founded in 2000, Insight Sports was established with the vision of becoming a dominant force in North American sports-television. As part of that vision, in 2001 Insight Sports acquired Aquila Productions Inc., an Edmonton company with a 20-year history of producing award-winning television programming for many of North America's major networks and sports organizations.

Today, Insight Sports produces programming for network television, scoreboards, and DVD home entertainment, and has rapidly earned a reputation for producing some of Canada's most innovative sports documentaries and television series. Insight also holds an equity position in three digital networks, including the new NHL Network, which launched in September 2001.

As a frontrunner in the use of computer animation to create dynamic, high-quality scoreboard video elements for live sporting events – and as exclusive provider of scoreboard production for the Eskimos (and for the Edmonton Oilers at Skyreach Centre), Insight Sports continues to apply the talents of its team of highly creative television professionals to the production of exceptional, award-winning video elements, features, interactive promotions, and sponsor advertising.

ESKIMOS IN THE COMMUNITY

Since 1949, the Edmonton Eskimo Football Club has given fans plenty to cheer about on the field, while lending a helping hand off it. Community service has been a priority of players and management from the earliest years of the Green and Gold.

Eskimo players are proud to participate in a large number of popular programs such as Tim Horton's Camp Day, Read-In Week, and Monday Morning Magic. One of the most popular and successful endeavours that the Eskimo organization participates in is the annual Edmonton Food Bank drive, which takes place at the Labour Day rematch in September. Last season, fans donated 7179 kilograms more of food and $12,455 eclipsing all previous years by a very wide margin.

Thanks in large part to our corporate partners, the Stay in School program has been the hallmark of our commitment to community service for more than 10 years. During that time, thousands of Edmonton and area students have heard stories of perseverance and determination from dozens of current and former players. This season, we are proud to use artwork from students on our season tickets, which depict the Stay in School theme. This past spring, Jed Roberts, A.J. Gass, Dan Comiskey, Singor Mobley and Ed Hervey paid a visit to 50 local and area schools.

630 CHED - VOICE OF THE ESKIMOS

AM 630
NEWS • TALK • SPORTS
CHED

All Edmonton Eskimo games are carried on 630 CHED. Eskimo pre-game show on 630 CHED starts one hour prior to kick-off.

With his signature call of "Touchdown Eskimos!", Bryan Hall has been the voice of football in Edmonton for over 35 seasons. Inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in 1989, Hall has called the action for 8 Eskimo Grey Cup victories and proudly wears a 1993 Grey Cup ring presented to him by the club. During his long career, Hall has done play by play of the Edmonton Oilers (WHA) and a few seasons ago "pinch hit" for the Boston Bruins when their announcer became ill before the opening face-off during a game in Edmonton. He was for many years the track announcer for thoroughbred racing at Northlands. On the rare occasion that he's not on-air at 630 CHED doing morning sports or his afternoon Sportline show, Bryan and his wife Lillian enjoy movies and travel.

For the last 23 seasons, Bryan has been joined in the broadcast booth by former Eskimo player, John Farlinger, who provides the expert analysis. John, who is the president of Farlie Worldwide Travel Management in St. Albert, played six seasons at safety for the Green and Gold (1973 - '78). A native Edmontonian who played his college ball at the University of Calgary, he was a member of the Eskimos 1978 Grey Cup winning team.

On home games, Bryan and John are joined in the booth by veteran broadcaster Larry Barris. Larry has done colour on Edmonton Trappers broadcasts and is a frequent guest host on 630 CHED's Inside Sports.
